IMMERSE YOURSELF IN THE REAL IRELAND

Where stays become memories.

What makes an Irish B&B so special?

It's guaranteed to give you the best start possible. Like the best home-cooked breakfasts that give you a delicious taste of real Irish living. You'll also stay in a home as unique as the Irish themselves and receive a welcome so warm you won't need the fire. After all, B&Bs in Ireland aren't just accommodation, they're an experience and, more importantly, they're an Irish family home.

Once you've been given a welcome like no other, you'll receive a hot cup of tea, and a "So, how was the journey? You must be exhausted!" Of course, behind the smiles and welcomes there's also a wealth of local knowledge. Want to know where to find the best Guinness? Or the top angling spots? Or perhaps where to enjoy the best traditional Irish music session? The answers to all these questions and more lie with the host at your B&B.

Each of these homes is built upon years of tradition. And, as a result, many of the B&Bs have been a family business for generations. Expect to hear, "My grandfather caught a huge pike on that lake!" or "My grandmother taught me to bake this soda bread. Would you like the recipe?". It also means if you're hoping to trace your family roots, your B&B host is the best person to talk to. Ireland's B&B hosts have been welcoming visitors for years. They simply excel at it.

Ask any Irish person and they'll tell you that breakfast is the most important meal of the day. That's why when you stay at any B&B you'll get a breakfast fit for a king. You will have a variety to choose from, but a tasty full-Irish breakfast is as popular today as ever.

As well as the cosy vibe in each B&B, services such as Wi-Fi connections are also available. In every B&B you are assured that quality is completely guaranteed as all of our homes are certified by the Irish Tourist board or by B&B Ireland's quality framework. The one delight in all B&Bs is the fact that you'll be treated as a member of the family and you'll always have a restful night's sleep. And, with almost 700 Irish family homes to choose from, you're assured to find the perfect B&B to suit your location and needs.

Whether you want a remote farmhouse retreat, a cosy cottage, a rustic country home, city B&B, a grand townhouse or a hideaway in an historic home, you'll have your pick and more.

Now, all you have to do is drop your bags and put your feet up. After all, it all begins with a B&B.

Dublin is 'Surprising by Nature'. This is somewhere you can move easily from the vibrant city centre life to the peaceful tranquillity of its charming coastal villages in less than 30 minutes. You can sample art, culture and nightlife in a bustling city that is easy to get around, before immersing yourself in nature and heritage on its stunning outskirts.

What visitors enjoy the most are the Dubliners themselves and the hospitality and warm welcome to be found in our Bed and Breakfasts. Ireland's wonderful capital is a place to build lasting memories, savour great experiences and celebrate the unexpected.

It's a buzzing European city where medieval walls stand proudly alongside 21st century architecture, where Trinity College and the Phoenix Park are beloved by generations and where cobbled streets, Victorian terraces and Georgian squares boast great restaurants and quirky cafes, museums and atmospheric pubs. Dublin's bay side setting is part of its charm. There are wonderful coastal villages like Malahide, Howth and Dalkey just a half-hour train journey from the city centre. And, to the south, its mountains provide stunning views and the perfect environment for hill-walkers, mountain bikers and nature lovers.

Enjoy the thrill of hurling at magnificent Croke Park or take the iconic Viking Splash Tour. Savour a truly sensational meal and enjoy a pint of 'the black stuff' at the panoramic Gravity Bar atop the Guinness Storehouse or catch a gig at Whelan's live music venue. What sets Dublin apart from other cities is that sense of the unexpected. Visitors always uncover new dimensions to the city outside the traditional tourism experiences. Whether it's chatting with the locals, a moment on Grafton Street enjoying a street performance or stumbling upon a pop-up shop that sells vintage clothing; Dublin is always unfolding in unique ways.

Kites on Dollymount Strand, Co. Dublin

Something unforgettable is waiting for you in Northern Ireland.

You might not see or touch it, but you'll definitely feel it. It sparks something in you, starts to change the way you think.

We call it our 'giant spirit'.
Where do you find that giant spirit?

You'll know you've found it when you canter across Downhill Beach on horseback. When you're kayaking across Strangford Lough or down the Foyle. When the breeze tosses your hair and you can't keep the grin from your face – that's it, that's our giant spirit.

Legendary encounters
It's hearing the roar of Titanic's engine rooms or dining by its famous staircase. It's the big sing-along in a bustling Cathedral Quarter pub. Or feeling awestruck by the intricate carvings on a Game of Thrones® door.

Unforgettable characters
Your hosts transmit our giant spirit to you through handshakes and stories. Or when they teach you skills they've inherited from their ancestors. You can't help but feel like one of the family when you're kneading dough for granny's wheaten bread recipe or picking apples on the family orchard.

Everyday adventure
Our giant spirit is in those butterflies. That feeling you get when you place one foot on a 300-year-old rope bridge, just to test its sturdiness. It's the white in your knuckles as you finally summon the nerve to step out and cross high above those steely blue waves.

It's feeling connected to the earth and to history when you find ancient ruins in Fermanagh, stargaze in Tyrone, or track St Patrick through Armagh.

That's the feeling we call our 'giant spirit'.

And we want to awaken yours.

Dublin Castle, Co. Dublin

DUBLIN & IRELAND EAST

Stretching from as far north as the banks of Emy Lough in Co. Monaghan down to the wild mountains of Co. Wicklow is the Dublin and Ireland East region. Beyond the blue flag beaches and lively capital city, to the wild lakeshores of Cavan and the Slieve Bloom Mountains nestled between Co. Laois and Co. Offaly, you'll find something for everyone in this diverse region.

Built on the River Liffey, situated beside the sea and mountains, capital city Dublin is a metropolis like no other. With evidence of Viking, Georgian and Medieval history around every corner, it's the perfect city to explore on foot. Top attractions include Dublin Castle, Christ Church Cathedral, the shopping haven of Grafton Street, and, of course, the inimitable Guinness Storehouse, where weary walkers can revive with a taste of the black stuff.

The hum of Dublin quickly gives way to the lush, remote countryside of Wicklow. Amongst the beautiful surrounds of Ireland's garden is the wooded glacial valley Glendalough, sheltering Ireland's finest monastic settlement. Driving north, the imposing Powerscourt Estate stands amid timbered hills and magnificent waterfalls.

The Irish National Stud, Co. Kildare is the birthplace of many of Ireland's most famous racehorses and the spectacular backdrops and purpose-built trails make the adjacent highland passes of the Dublin and Wicklow Mountains ideal for biking and hiking.

The iconic Hill of Tara, in the heart of the Boyne Valley, Co. Meath, is the burial site of the last high king of Ireland, while just beyond, one of Ireland's most impressive ancient monuments — the UNESCO World Heritage Site Newgrange — waits to be discovered.

Tucked away in Co. Westmeath, the historic garrison town of Athlone showcases culture, heritage and stunning scenery at every turn. Split down the middle by the River Shannon, it's home to the oldest pub in Ireland, Sean's Bar, which dates back to 900AD.

Immerse yourself in the real Ireland

Book on www.bandbireland.com or property website

Blarney Castle, Co.Cork

IRELAND SOUTH

A region of stunning contrasts, Ireland South is replete with natural wonder -from the abundant waters of its winding rivers to the stunning coastline with its famously mild climate. Luminous and laidback, the south is the place to be.

Cork is the largest county in Ireland with a personality to match. From thriving Cork city to the sweet serenity of Mizen Head, Cork offers something for everyone. Dive with seals in Baltimore or cruise one of West Cork's golden beaches. Sample fresh seafood at Cork city's renowned English Market or indulge in epicurean delights in Kinsale.

Just over the mountains to the northwest, you'll find breathtaking Co. Kerry, which simply must be seen to be believed. From picturesque Dingle Peninsula -where panoramic views and ancient forts provide an otherworldly backdrop to lively, musical Dingle town -to the Celtic kingdom town of Killarney, Kerry is a marvel. Travel the world famous Ring of Kerry, with 179km of Wild Atlantic Way coastal road, spot the UNESCO world heritage island of Skellig Michael, or climb Ireland's highest mountain, Carrauntoohil.

Over in Co. Tipperary, The Rock of Cashel is one of Ireland's most famous attractions. This ancient fortress, parts of which date back to the 4th century, was once the seat of the kings of Munster.

Next door in Waterford, shop for the world's finest crystal or explore a thousand years of history in the city's fascinating Viking Triangle. Or you can head for the bustle of Co. Kilkenny's namesake city with its tangle of 17th-century passageways and rows of colourful shops and timeless pubs nestled in the shadow of the magnificent Kilkenny Castle. The lush, landlocked nugget of Co. Carlow also delivers a dramatic chunk of mystical Irish history – the Brownhill Dolmen, the largest portal dolmen in Europe.

Along the scenic southern shoreline towards Co. Wexford, a multitude of picturesque fishing villages invite a visit, such as cheerful Rosslare, the sunniest spot in Ireland.

IRELAND WEST

Benbulbin, Co. Sligo

Explore lush landscapes, stroll idyllic sandy shores, go wild in the city or unwind in the countryside. From the Wild Atlantic Way to the serene stretches of the Shannon, the West simply has it all.

The misty mountain trails and dramatic scenery of Co. Donegal simply beg to be explored. Boasting the longest stretch of coastline in Ireland (almost 650km) and Sliabh Liag, the highest sea-cliffs in Europe, this is one county that knows how to impress.

Stunning Co. Sligo, immortalised by Nobel Prize-winner WB Yeats and his artist brother Jack, brims with beauty and creative inspiration. A visit to Lissadell House & Gardens is the perfect way to follow in the great poet's footsteps, or you can pay your respects at his final resting place -the evocative Drumcliffe Church. Closeby is picturesque Glencar Waterfall in Co. Leitrim, that captivates every person that visits. Those who are brave enough to climb Croagh Patrick in Co. Mayo a 764m high mountain and historical site of pilgrimage are justly rewarded with incredible views of Clew Bay.

Roam Lough Key Forest Park in Co. Roscommon with its 12th century Abbey and viewing tower.

Experience the infectious energy of Galway city, where you can shop, dine, drink and dance to your heart's content in a vibrant yet traditional metropolis. Remote and beautiful Connemara offers wide open spaces, or you can set sail for the stunning Aran Islands for a slice of island life.

The hub of traditional music and the soul of the Shannon region, a visit to Co. Clare is essential. The iconic Cliffs of Moher are a draw, yet breathtaking scenery abounds throughout the region.

With boisterous Limerick city at its heart, Co. Limerick pulses with culture and vitality. Nearby, the adorable thatched village of Adare is home to one of country's best woodland golf courses.

NORTHERN IRELAND

Causeway Coast, Co. Antrim

With lush glens, majestic mountains and cities brimming with culture, enchanting Northern Ireland can even lay claim to giants and saints.

Don't miss a trip to Co. Antrim's Giant's Causeway. The result of volcanic activity, but said in folklore to have been built by giant Fionn Mac Cumhaill, it's a mesmeric 40,000 interlocking columns of basalt. Visit stunning Dunluce Castle, a medieval ruin perched at the earth's edge. At Islandmagee you can take on The Gobbins Cliff Path, an exhilarating route that showcases incredible coastal views. Sample a whiskey tipple at the Old Bushmills Distillery, the oldest in Ireland, or blow away the cobwebs by crossing the thrilling 30m high Carrick-a-Rede Rope Bridge.

In bustling Belfast step back in time with a stroll around the Titanic Quarter. Immerse yourself in the history of the great yet doomed liner, built in the city's shipyards, at the Titanic museum.

Discover Co. Armagh, awash in heritage and history and also the very place St Patrick began his Christian mission.

Relax and unwind among Co. Down's magnificent Mourne Mountains. Nearby, spend an uplifting day wandering the Ards Peninsula and beautiful Strangford Lough.

The lake district of Co. Fermanagh boasts a wealth of natural beauty. Explore the Marble Arch Caves, or discover local craft at Sheelin Antique Irish Lace Museum.

Follow the famous city walls of Derry-Londonderry to encounter nightlife and culture, with bars, clubs and festivals making the atmosphere positively infectious. And don't forget to stop off at the Museum of Free Derry, the place to learn all about the city's remarkable people and history.

Co. Tyrone is a treasure trove of prehistoric sites, verdant forest parks and mountainous landscapes. Explore the county's close ties to America at the Ulster American Folk Park, where visitors can enjoy the stories of immigrants who left Ulster in search of the American dream.

BOOK YOUR B&B STAY

To book your stay in a B&B Ireland home, please visit www.bandbireland.com

What is a B&B?

A B&B is a family home offering accommodation and breakfast. Your host and their family live on the property and gladly welcome you into their home as their guest.

Arrival at the B&B is generally between 3pm and 6pm, or by special arrangement with your host.

Departure is usually around 11am. If possible, please let your host know your expected arrival time. As a guest, you have access to the property all day during your stay.

Getting to your B&B is easy, with every property's GPS coordinates displayed in decimal degree format.

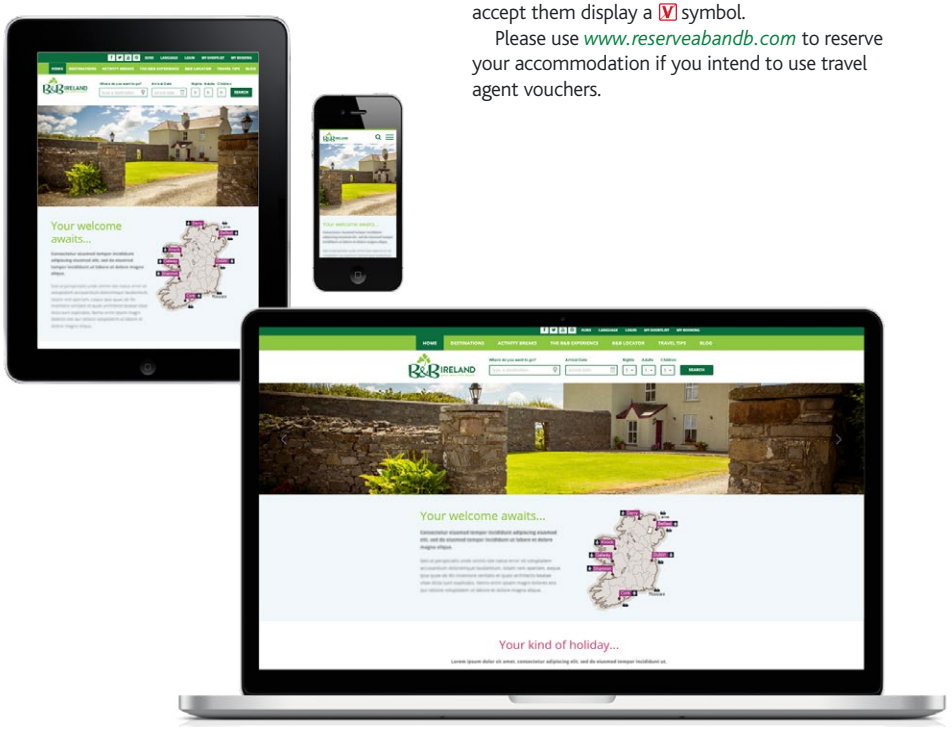

Making a reservation is simple. You can log onto www.bandbireland.com or the property's own website, or you can contact the property directly via email or phone them to make your booking. The cost of your stay includes accommodation, breakfast and all taxes. Prices are displayed on all property websites and www.bandbireland.com.

Be sure to check the B&B's cancellation policy at the time of booking.

Credit card payment is accepted in most properties, there may be a small charge for this service. Sterling is accepted in Northern Ireland, and Euro is accepted throughout the rest of Ireland.

Properties accepting travel agent vouchers display a V symbol, while properties that do not accept them display a V symbol.

Please use www.reserveabandb.com to reserve your accommodation if you intend to use travel agent vouchers.
